Wound Care

Manuka Honey Gel

Sterile medical-grade Manuka honey helps maintain a moist wound environment that supports healing.

Rich in Methylglyoxal (MGO), it is standardized for antibacterial efficacy and sterilized for safety. Sourced from 100% Leptospermum scoparium honey from New Zealand, it promotes autolytic debridement, supports granulation, and reduces wound odor. Its low pH prevents bacterial growth.

Under veterinary supervision, it can be used for trauma, surgical, ulcerated, infected, and persisting wounds, as well as 1st and 2nd degree burns, lacerations, and abrasions. Available in 15 g and 42.5 g single-use tubes, it minimizes cross-contamination and can be applied directly to the wound or dressing.
